DEAR DR. STEWART,

I AWOKED THIS MORNING AND REALIZED JOYOUSLY THAT THERE IS NO PAIN ... STILL STRANGE SENSATIONS IN MY LEFT FOOT, ... BUT NO PAIN! THEN I ALSO REALIZED THAT I COULDN'T REALLY REMEMBER HAVING TOLD YOU WITH ALL MY WHOLE HEART HOW GRATEFUL I AM TO YOU FOR ALL YOUR CARE THROUGHOUT THE YEARS, AND NOW, MOST ESPECIALLY, HOW GRATEFUL I AM FOR YOUR SKILLS, EXPERIENCE & DEDICATION & SWEET SPIRIT THAT MOST CERTAINLY HAVE MADE THIS AMAZING AND POSITIVE DIFFERENCE IN MY LIFE.

THANK YOU, DR. STEWART! YOU ARE JUST THE BEST, AND I APPRECIATE YOU!

SINCERELY

Mary

Dear Dr. Stewart,

I have wanted to write you a letter for an extremely long time and I apologize for not doing it sooner. There are no words for me to tell you and thank you for all you have done for me. You were instrumental in giving me one of the biggest miracles of my life. When I first came to you I was broken, emotionally and physically. I did not know if I could go on, and yet I didn't have an alternative. How God allowed me to find you on the internet when I had never looked on the internet for anything but mail order shopping, still blows my mind. When people ask me how I found you I can hardly tell the story. Debbie, just a voice on the other end of the phone was so kind and supportive of me coming to you. That gave me the hope to come. I know Doctors are trained to not get emotionally connected to patients, but as a patient I can tell you that we become tied to a surgeon that can change our destiny because of the skill or lack of, that goes on in the operating room. I also want to thank you so much for helping me recover from all of this by not throwing me away after the surgery was over. I never realized the problems that were brewing over prescription medication because I have never abused any medication but I know now you took a chance on me and I thank you forever.

I hope in all the ungratefulness and politics of medicine you will feel happy over how you were used in so many people's lives, and on a bad day reflect on my case and feel better.

Sincerely,

Cheryl L
